

TODAY AS NEVER BEFORE YOU NEED THE ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA

WHAT has been the lasting heritage of the war? In brief, a nation of keener thinking, knowledge-demanding people. The war had a profound effect on the 100,000,000 inhabitants of this country. It carried their interests from the town or city in which they live across the water into foreign countries, to every part of the world. They became no longer content to know only their neighbor across the street, but they wanted to learn of their neighbors in all nations of the earth. The war created in the people a thirst for knowledge, world wide in compass. The war instilled in the people the habit of thinking broadly in world wide terms, of wanting information on subjects they never dreamed of before, of thinking more deeply on the problems of the day. Over the two and a half years since the war, during the political, social, economic adjustment in this country, this habit of the people has grown stronger and stronger until today there has never been manifest such eagerness among the people for knowledge—knowledge on every conceivable subject under the sun.

The Britannica Goes Hand in Hand With the Awakened World

Where can people find the means to satisfy this demand for knowledge? The greatest reservoir of knowledge in existence—authoritative and comprehensive—is the Encyclopædia Britannica, the most widely known, the most revered—the resource of thousands of men and women, seekers of knowledge in every generation for a century and a half. It is the book of the hour to satisfy the increased demand for knowledge by the awakened people of today.

Are You Keeping Abreast of the Times?

Today as never before the man and woman needs every ounce of knowledge he or she can obtain in order to cope with the present business, political, social and economic readjustment. Business particularly has been facing new and strange conditions, endeavoring to get back to a normal basis. In this tremendous readjustment it has been the men with the broad foundation of knowledge who, as executives and workers in our industries, have been able to take the responsibility and have risen speedily to positions of greater power and greater remuneration. To the business man, manufacturer, the worker in the industries, the Britannica will furnish information of practical, helpful and comprehensive character, and furnish a knowledge which will give to the man broader insight into his work and the problems of today.

The man who holds his job today during this readjustment period is he who is particularly fitted for his work, the man who knows more than his fellows. Knowledge is always above par in the market and the easiest commodity in the world to sell, as an employer will gladly pay your price if you have the knowledge to deliver. An investment in the Britannica will pay you many times over in dividends of knowledge, pleasure and satisfaction.

The Most Authoritative Work in the World

The Britannica has had a long and enviable career, and has grown in authority and esteem from generation to generation until it occupies the position today as the great reference book, ahead of any other in any country or in any language. It has had as its contributors a host of the greatest experts in the entire world throughout the 150 years of its existence. When you read an article in the Britannica, therefore, you feel confident that the information is reliable and authoritative, for the Britannica is the product of the wisest minds of the day, each a great specialist in the particular subject on which he is furnishing an article in the Britannica.

The Britannica discusses in a way that you can understand every branch of science, industry, literature, art, religion, inventions and engineering, history and race development, architecture, astronomy, chemistry, sociology, education, steam, electricity, geology and geography, biography, law and physics. You and your family will find in the Britannica a liberal education.

A Means of Self Development—A Home University

In placing the Eleventh Edition before the public, the Press of the University of Cambridge announced: "The Eleventh Edition of the Encyclopædia Britannica is now offered to the public by the University of Cambridge in the hope and belief that it will be found to be a trustworthy guide to sound learning, and an instrument of culture of world wide influence." Seldom has a hope been so quickly and completely realized. Thousands of owners have found the Britannica an indispensable means of self education. An instructor at Princeton has written that the Britannica has become the "collection of books" which Carlyle might term "the true university;" a teacher in a business college that "by its purchase I have secured access to a university education;" the president of an insurance company that "universally possessed it ought to educate the race. It is the people's university."
